GUIDELINES FOR INCLUSION OF ITEMS IN LOGOS 23

Items are included at the discretion of the editor based on policy agreed by Churches Together Northampton.
Aesop relates the story that once upon a time the Fox invited the Stork to dinner and put before her some soup in a very shallow dish. The Fox could easily lap it up, but the Stork could only wet the end of her long bill in it, and left the meal as hungry as when she began. "I am sorry that the soup is not to your liking" said the Fox.

"Pray do not apologise," said the Stork. "I hope you will come and dine with me soon and I will show you what a true feast is." When the Fox went to dinner at the Stork's house she also served some soup but in a very long-necked jar with a narrow mouth, and all the Fox could manage to do was lick the outside of it. So he too left a shared meal still hungry.

We recognise that both the Fox and the Stork were plainly bad mannered. To invite someone to share in a meal and then to serve it in the manner to which we are accustomed but without taking any account of how they normally eat, demonstrates that we have little regard for the other person and it makes the sharing of food an almost meaningless gesture. To be meaningful, the sharing of food needs to include a genuine interest in each other and a willingness to understand what makes the other person tick.

Over the years that I have been involved in working across the denominations I have attended many occasions that have involved a coming together of those from different traditions of worship. Some have been very good indeed, as those involved have sought to understand where others have come from and have embraced aspects of other traditions that have corrected and enriched their own. Those who have come with the attitude 'What can I learn from my brothers and sisters?' have rarely gone away disappointed.

But such times have been few. Too often I have been unable to see any attempt to put other guests at ease. Too often the hosts have simply served up the worship in the way in which they are most comfortable; in the way in which they themselves are most at ease.

Of course, worship can be wrong - the Israelites were admonished to flee from such and so should we. But different styles and different cultures do not simply equate to what is right or wrong, that has much more to do with content, responding to who God is, as expressed through hearts and minds. When it comes merely to style and what we are used to, God is able to embrace the full range of human expressions and sift out that which is based on preference or familiarity. But we are not so able. To insist that others adapt to us without any effort to adapt to them, is not unity but bad manners.

Roman Catholic Proclaim’15 Request for Prayer

In 2015 a significant evangelisation initiative called Proclaim ‘15 is being launched to support, inspire and encourage new expressions of parish evangelisation. A project of the Bishops’ Conference of England and Wales, it is designed to affirm the good work that is already being done by the Catholic community, and to provide resources and events to profile and develop new expressions of Catholic joy and missionary outreach.

This is the first event of its kind in a generation and will bring together an extraordinary group of speakers, workshop leaders and representatives from every diocese in England and Wales to celebrate joyfully and confidently their Catholic Faith, and to explore how better to share it.

850 evangelisation representatives will be in attendance, with a quota of day passes having been assigned, equally, to each diocese. The event is primarily offered for members of diocesan evangelisation teams and commissions, as well as to a wider group of co-workers directly working in support of existing diocesan strategies and plans. The the CTE co-ordinating group, The Churches Group for Evangelisation, 10 ecumenical guests will be present at Proclaim ‘15 to share in the event, pray, and reflect afterwards at the request of the planning group.

The following prayer is for Proclaim ‘15. Christians are invited to pray regularly and especially on July 11th, in all traditions, for the conference and for the Holy Spirit ‘to go out to the whole world to proclaim’.

PROCLAIM ’15 PRAYER
(You are welcome to reproduce the initiative prayer in print and use it on electronic platforms.)

Loving Father, You so loved the world that you sent us your only Son, that we might believe in him and have eternal life. May we encounter Jesus Christ anew this day and live the Good News with joy. Through the power of your Holy Spirit, help us to “go out to the whole world and proclaim” our faith with confidence.

Give us the courage to witness to the Joy of the Gospel by our words and actions. Help our parish to become more welcoming and missionary, so that you may be known and loved by all people. We make this prayer through Our Lord Jesus Christ Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever, Amen.

Northamptonshire Faith Action Audit

Cinnamon Network this week revealed the results of the Northamptonshire Faith Action Audit providing clear evidence of the large scale social action impact and economic value of faith groups are having in the county. The Cinnamon Faith Action Audit for Northamptonshire was launched at an event in Kings Park, Northampton hosted by Adam Simmonds with keynote speaker Canon Andrew White and is the most detailed and comprehensive report of its kind to date. Among other crucial statistics the survey reveals that the time alone given by churches together and other faith groups through social action projects in the area was worth over £15 million, impacting tens of thousands of people within the county. On a national level this puts time given by UK faith groups into their communities at over £3 billion a year, supporting 48 million beneficiaries. The Audit Steering Committee worked hard to invite all types of faith groups who meet a wide range of social needs including homelessness, social isolation, debt and addiction, to take part in the Northamptonshire Cinnamon Faith Action Audit in early February this year from both urban and rural areas. The report highlighted that churches and faith groups contributed 1.5M hours of volunteering to Northamptonshire last year, with each group delivering £89k worth of support on average.

The report also disproved the stereotype of churches and faith groups predominantly working with women and children as it identified that paid staff and volunteers were actively working with people from all ages and with men and women in almost equal measure.

Greece

IN THE FOOTSTEPS of St Paul

A PILGRIMAGE TO GREECE with the Revd Heather Wilson

23 May - 2 June 2016

From our viewpoint at the beginning of the third millennium it is good to look back to the first century missionary journeys of St Paul and the expansion of the early Christian Church. This pilgrimage will bring to life the early churches Paul founded and corresponded with. Places so familiar from the New Testament, such as Thessalonika, Philippi and Corinthis, will be visited.

Our pilgrimage is a journey covering the length of Greece. We begin in Kavala (biblical Neapolis), then travel through rural Greece to Thessalonika and on to the fantastic Meteora monasteries and the ancient oracle at Delphi. Our destination, like Paul, is Athens. Here he preached his famous sermon introducing the Athenians to the “unknown God”. Visits during our three night stay in Athens include the Areopagus where Paul preached and the incomparable Parthenon adorning the Acropolis. There will be an opportunity to worship each day and to celebrate the Eucharist together on a couple of occasions.

A Special Taizé Worship Event.

One summer, over thirty years ago, I stepped into a minibus with a church youth group I barely knew (one young member of which has just celebrated his twenty-fifth wedding anniversary) and went off on an adventure to a place in the heart of Burgundy called Taizé.

I have since returned many times. With my own children, with dear friends, and most recently with my husband. Each time has been different. And each time the same. Taizé is a special place of community and welcome, of music and prayer, of laughter, fellowship and silence. My visits have enhanced my faith and my prayer life immeasurably. The international meetings on the hill each summer have included an increasing number of nationalities and languages, as the world has grown smaller, although many pilgrims still have to spend days travelling to get there.

Some of the “little springtime” which is Taizé can be celebrated in our worship here. At St. Peter’s we have included Taizé music in our worship and had special Taizé style services, the most recent led by Aimee Whittaker.

This year, the ecumenical Christian community at Taizé is celebrating seventy-five years of existence. It also celebrates a hundred years since the birth of Brother Roger who founded the community to encourage and act out reconciliation in a place which had been torn apart by war and was hungry for both food and for God's love.

From August the 9th to the 16th the brothers will hold “a gathering for a new solidarity” on the hill, a special week-long meeting open to participants 18-35 years old with workshop leaders who work for peace and justice worldwide.

On Sunday the 16th, in solidarity with them, St Peter's and Emmanuel, itself an ecumenical church, plan to get together to hold a joint Taizé evening service of celebration in Weston Favell. Northampton Soup – 12 noon launch 12th September
Christ Church, Wellingborough Road, Northampton NN1 5LL
This event is based on Detroit Soup, a model of local fundraising and community engagement, which has also been rolled out in Essex. The idea is that for a £5 minimum donation for soup and bread you can become part of a funding network where people pitch ideas and attendees vote on local projects. The successful project takes the proceedings raised and feeds back at the next event. The ideas pitched may cover arts, social justice, social enterprise and food initiatives. About 4 projects are pitched at an event. Children eat free and get a vote! Bring your own bowl, (we have got some)!

Signing of Faith Covenant

Representatives of the Police, three councils and seven faith groups signed a covenant to work together for the good of our town and county at an event at Kings Park Conference Centre last week. Northamptonshire is the third area of the country to be involved such an agreement which has been initiated by Faith Action UK in cooperation with the All Party Parliamentary Group on faith.

Whilst it is recognised that there are fundamental disagreements on many issues between all the parties involved in signing the covenant, it is also recognised that when it comes to acts of compassion and social justice there are actually areas of close agreement. The covenant particularly highlights that, it is in areas of community life where we may agree rather than those areas where we possibly do not, that we need to seek to affirm one another and work together.

Those who signed the covenant were as follows:

- Cllr Chris Miller (Daventry), Cllr Phil Bignell (South Northants) and Cllr Robin Brown NCC Cabinet Member and Chair of Health and Wellbeing Board
- Adam Simmonds, Police Commissioner
- Baha’i Faith - Ken Howlett
- Buddhist Faith - William Duncan
- Christian Faith – Bishop John Holbrook
- Jewish - Bruce Greenburg
- Hindu Faith - Neelam Aggarwal-Singh
- Muslim Faith Abade Ahmed
- Sikh Faith - Nisha Mejer

If you would like more information about the covenant visit: www.ofbci.com
Bishop Dr Joe Aldred, acting General Secretary of Churches Together in England has just published his autobiography:

‘From Top Mountain’.
The book tells the story of Joe’s life from childhood in the rural district of Top Mountain located in the hills of St Catherine, Jamaica, to his current ecumenical role serving the churches in England.

The BIG Welcome

The BIG Welcome is a simple idea to encourage Christians to share God’s love as they play a part in building their community. It is about making people feel really welcome in any church activity. Sunday 20 September is being suggested as a BIG Welcome Day this year, but the resources are undated so that they can be used at any time. For more information, and to order resources, see the BIG Welcome website.

ENGAGE 2015

GUIDELINES FOR INCLUSION OF ITEMS IN LOGOS

LOGOS is Churches Together Northampton monthly newsletter. Part of its function is to share information: something it endeavours to do from a standpoint of grace and generosity. LOGOS will advertise and inform about events put on by Christian churches or organisations in and around Northamptonshire other than normal services that take place on a regular basis. It will also include items which may be of interest to churches even if not ‘Christian’ in content (such as information relating to state law, charities, or things of particular note in Northampton).

Events may be organised by individuals, individual churches or organisations, or by groups working together. An event does not have to be a ‘United’ event to be included and it can be put on by and for special interest groups – such as mums and toddlers, church leaders or a Gospel Choir.

However in order to assist LOGOS readers, the editor will endeavour to classify items and group them together into categories. These are not absolute classifications but generally speaking those we use are as follows:

CHURCHES TOGETHER ENGLAND, CHURCHES TOGETHER NORTHAMPTON
DENOMINATIONAL, CROSS CHURCH
INDIVIDUAL CHURCH EVENTS AND ORGANISATIONS
NATIONAL / LOCAL GOVERNMENT AND VOLUNTARY SECTOR
INTERFAITH, FUNDING, TRAINING AND RESOURCES, JOBS & VOLUNTEERING

Sometimes information or advertisements for events are worded with such terms as ‘United’, ‘Unity’, ‘Working together’, ‘For Northampton’ etc. which would initially seem to indicate that they might be included in CHURCHES TOGETHER NORTHAMPTON or at least in CROSS CHURCH. However it sometimes appears that the events are in fact organised by a single church or organisation, or perhaps by a small group but which is comprised of those from a particular church stream or theological standpoint. In such case the editor would normally follow CTN policy and include them in the INDIVIDUAL CHURCH EVENTS AND ORGANISATIONS classification.

Events are not classified by their aim but by their origin. So an event put on by one individual will be classified as such, even if they are aiming for something united and is open to all churches.

As far as LOGOS classifications are concerned (based on the understanding and agreement of Churches Together), for something to be advertised as United or one of the other aforementioned terms, at least one of the following should apply:

1) The event should be sponsored by the different churches in a locality (for example Churches Together Abington comprises all the different churches in that area.)
2) The event will have involved active participation in decision making by individuals or churches from a spread of denominations or church groupings (Prayer and Praise Northampton would be an example of this.)
3) If organised by an individual or single group, they will have agreed co-operation or involvement with a spread of inter-denominational participants.
4) The event is organised by an organisation which already fully demonstrates cross church activity (such as Northamptonshire Association of Youth Clubs).
5) The event is designated cross denominational or cross church by Churches Together Northampton or England (such as Women’s World Day of Prayer).

Whilst recognising that some events are organised from the best of motives, and with the wish and aspiration that they become cross church/denominational vehicles for unity, the LOGOS editor may nonetheless decline to include such events if they suggest a level of already agreed unity and co-operation that does not in fact exist.

Such action does not necessarily imply that the editor considers such an event to be wrong or unhelpful, but it will be done in order to ensure the accuracy of information which is carried by LOGOS. Joe Story LOGOS editor 2015
